

John Chu Ka Yan
Founder
Centro Digital Pictures Ltd.

John Chu is the founder and chairman of Centro Digital Pictures, Hong Kong's pioneer in computer animation and digital film effects. For over 20 years John Chu has been relentlessly building Centro into what is regarded as the premier digital effects company in Asia. Centro has received numerous Golden Horse and Hong Kong Film Awards and was also nominated for Best Visual Effects at the British Academy Awards for "Kill Bill".

Centro co-produced the first Disney-branded Chinese language feature film called "The Secret of the Magic Gourd" which won the Best Children's Film Award at the 2007 Golden Rooster Awards of China.

John Chu was named by Business Week as one of the "50 Stars of Asia" as a "Leader at the Forefront of Change" and the recipient of the South China Morning Post Business Award for the "Owner/Operator" Category. In 2001 he was awarded the Bronze Bauhinia Star by the HKSAR Government for "raising Hong Kong's profile by applying advanced technology in entertainment productions."

John Chu's vision for Centro is to build a digital film studio for the 21st century where young and creative talents are trained to use the latest tools and technology to explore their creative frontiers and the latest item on Centro's agenda is stereoscopic 3-D films.
