

Richard Watson
Managing Director
ATC (Hong Kong) Limited

Richard Watson is Managing Director of ATC (Hong Kong) Limited, the Hong Kong regional office of Amsterdam Trust Corporation (ATC) which was established in 1893. ATC focuses on four key competencies: corporate services, private clients, capital markets and funds administration, and employs more than 400 staff in 17 offices around the world.

In June 1997, shortly after the return of Hong Kong to China, Richard moved from Sydney, Australia to work in Hong Kong. Having worked in and around South East Asia for some 20 years, he is now a Hong Kong permanent resident.

Richard has degrees in science, marketing (international trade) and business administration, is a trust and estate practitioner, and now spends most of his time assisting entrepreneurs and foreign companies to set up their Asian operations.
