

Jason Yeung
Deputy Chief Executive
Bank of China (Hong Kong) Ltd

Mr. Yeung Jason Chi Wai is a Deputy Chief Executive of Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited (“BOCHK”) and BOC Hong Kong (Holdings) Limited (“the Company”) as well as its subsidiaries (“the Group”). In addition to overseeing the Group’s Personal Banking business, he is also a member of the Management Committee of the Group which provides overall leadership and guidance on the business development, strategic planning and operation of the Group. He is the Vice Chairman of BOC Credit Card (International) Limited and a Director of BOC Group Life Assurance Company Limited. Mr. Yeung joined the Group in 2001 as the Board Secretary and Company Secretary of the Company and its principal operating subsidiary, BOCHK. He also acted as the Board and Company Secretary of Bank of China from 2005 to 2008.

Mr. Yeung actively participates in community work and social services. His current public services include serving as a Member of Liaoning Committee of the Chinese People’s Political Consultative Conference, a Member of the Insurance Advisory Committee of the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government and a Director of the Financial Dispute Resolution Centre. He is also a Member of Hospital Authority Review Steering Committee, a Member of the Board of Director and the Executive Committee of the Community Chest of Hong Kong, as well as an Elected Member of the General Committee of Employers’ Federation of Hong Kong.

Mr. Yeung received a Bachelor’s Degree in Social Sciences from the University of Hong Kong. He later graduated from The College of Law, United Kingdom and further obtained a Bachelor’s Degree in Law from the University of Western Ontario, Canada and a Master’s Degree in Business Administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business of the University of Western Ontario, Canada.