

Irene Chu

Head of New Economy & Life Sciences, KPMG China

Irene is a partner of KPMG China in the audit practice and heads up the New Economy sector as well as Life Sciences industries for the Hong Kong Region. She started her career with KPMG in Toronto, Canada and has been working in Hong Kong for over 15 years. Irene works with multinational and Chinese companies in technology, consumer markets, healthcare and also entrepreneurs and emerging companies in a variety of industries including life sciences, robotics and e-commerce.

Irene is active in Hong Kong's start-up community and connected with KPMG Global Enterprise Practice which focuses on serving fast growing private businesses and entrepreneurs. Irene and her team regularly collaborates with government agencies, startups incubators, investors, universities and corporates to support Hong Kong's innovation agenda and entrepreneurial ecosystem.